

Licensed Materials available to members of the Vermont Online Library from the Gale Group provide:

Excellence of quality. VOL provides access to reliable information compiled by established vendors, many of whom have done business with libraries and the private sector for decades. The information is produced by known and trusted publishers.

Equity for all. VOL provides an equitable means for citizens in all areas of the state, whether rural or urban, to access these information rich resources.

Economy of scale. VOL saves participating schools, colleges, and libraries hundreds of thousands of dollars through aggregated group purchasing. Many VOL participants could not afford these databases on their own.

Two-year pilot project. VOL benefits every resident of Vermont for less than 25 cents per person per year. That is less than the price of a postage stamp.
